names of the legislators to the Grand Jury. Kirby ordered them to reveal the names, and when they refused, cited them for contempt of court.
The newsmen were in jail about 30 hours before the Supreme Court released them while it reviewed their case. The Supreme Court dismissed the appeal with no expression of opinion.
Smith and Baker offered to purge themselves of the contempt charge Tuesday but Kirby said the case was out of his hands as long as it was being appealed to the Supreme Court.

Constitution 1st. Step to Democracy

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — "There wasn't a dry eye in the place."
Those are the words of one of President Johnson's aides. The place was Guam where the President, surrounded by his top advisors, met with South Vietnam's Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.
And this was the occasion: Ky handed the President an embossed copy of South Vietnam's new constitution which Saigon's constituent assembly, after working on it since September, had just approved so Ky could take it to Guam.
If the Americans were moved to tears it was because this constitution was the first solid step toward a democratic society by a people who had endured endless centuries of domination by Chinese, mandarins, emperors, and the colonialist French.
The same Johnson aide said that before Ky left Saigon he had worked four days and nights to get the constitution through the assembly. Election of a president and a new assembly will follow in a few months.
"The Americans were fatigued by their long journey to Guam," the aide said, "but Ky should have been exhausted. He wasn't. He was very self-confident." Newsmen who watched and heard him at Guam can testify to that.
Ky asserted himself at Guam — to such an extent that he took the headlines away from Johnson — and has continued to do so since, which may have a significant effect on the war and American relations with South Vietnam.
In the past week some prominent South Vietnamese have expressed great hope for the future, believing a popularly-supported, established government will take the starch out of the Viet Cong and induce North Vietnam to talk peace.
They were realistic enough to believe that just achieving a democratic government is not enough — to prove it can endure will take a little time and until then American help will continue to be needed.

At a news conference in Guam Ky called for broadening and intensifying the war against North Vietnam. He blasted those American critics of Johnson and the war who call for an end to bombing the North and for a coalition government in South Vietnam to include the present enemy, the Viet Cong.
Ky said: "It's now our turn to say something. We are not going to accept communism in South Vietnam and nobody is going to be able to impose communism on us. We will never accept a coalition with Communists."
But the self-confidence didn't first show itself at Guam. When Johnson last February ordered a bombing pause over the Vietnamese lunar new year, hoping this might persuade North Vietnam to make a peace move, nothing happened.
It will probably go down as a futile American gesture. But one significant thing, perhaps overlooked, did happen in connection with the lunar pause.
Ky's South Vietnamese government by then had reached a point of such self-confidence that in a surprise move it offered to discuss with North Vietnam a much longer pause in the bombing. North Vietnam did not accept.
Still later, immediately after the Guam meeting, South Vietnam's chief of state, Nguyen Van Thieu, announced his government had proposed a peace meeting with the North, saying that if they were ready, "We are ready."
This apparently was part of South Vietnam's reply — which wasn't made public until this week — to the three-step peace proposal made by U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations.
Thant had suggested, in this order, a stand-by truce in Vietnam, then preliminary talks before an international conference,

GOPs Win Big Victory in Florida

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans here are celebrating a major political breakthrough in Florida's special legislative election, but their elation is tempered by apparent failure to pick up a House seat in Rhode Island.
The Rhode Island contest remained in doubt with Democrat Robert O. Tiernan clinging to a 370-vote margin over Republican James DiPrete Jr. for the seat of the late Rep. John E. Fogarty. Nearly 1,900 absentee ballots are to be counted Friday.
Sources in both parties expressed doubt DiPrete could overcome Tiernan's lead, unless substantial counting errors have been made. "It's definitely uphill," commented one GOP spokesman.
But in Florida, Republicans scored a major victory. Although falling short of a majority, they picked up enough seats to prevent Democrats from overriding vetoes by GOP Gov. Claude Kirk and gained their strongest foothold in any Deep South legislature.

Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss said the GOP "has established a solid beachhead for an even greater Republican victory in 1968" and Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., said the result "clearly shows the people's disapproval of the LBJ high society."
Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey said the results "imply that our two-party system will be put to work in Florida."
The two elections were the first major political tests of strength since Republicans gained 47 House seats, three senators and eight governorships last November.
Democrats, meanwhile, continue laying plans for 1968 today as the party's state chairmen open two days of closed meetings with officials of the national committee here. A major topic will be Bailey's efforts to revitalize party machinery in the wake of criticism stemming from the election results.
The pursuit of truth shall set you free—even if you never catch up with it.— Clarence Darrow, American jurist.

April Wedding for Novelist

MEDFORD, Ore. (AP) — An April wedding is planned by Mrs. Helen Hedrick, novelist and widow of an Oregon educator, and Alfred A. Knopf, the New York publisher.
Announcing their engagement Tuesday, Mrs. Hedrick said she would marry the head of Alfred A. Knopf Inc., April 12 in Rio de Janeiro.
She said she met Knopf, 74, when his firm published one of her novels, "The Blood Remembers," in the early 1940s. Mrs. Hedrick is believed to be in her 60s.
They corresponded after his wife died last year. Her husband, E. H. Hedrick, died in 1963.

Labor Dispute Near a Head

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Labor disputes throughout the country came to a head today as a strike against national television and radio networks continued and walkouts affecting New York newspapers and several dozen railroads were threatened.
Meanwhile in the fight of the National Farmers Organization to force milk prices up — technically not a strike but having much the same impact as a strike — interest centered today on Des Moines, Iowa, site of a hearing today on a government antitrust action against the NFO.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The educational level of the entire population in the United States continues to rise, says The World Almanac. In 1966, 50 per cent of all Americans 25 years old or over had completed at least four years of high school. Approximately 10 per cent of the same group had completed four or more years of college. In 1947, the comparable figures were 33 per cent for high school and 5 per cent for college.

The Lightner slam double calls for an unusual lead. When the doubler has bid a suit it becomes obvious that he wants one of the other two suits led. When the doubler has not bid at all you must choose between three suits.

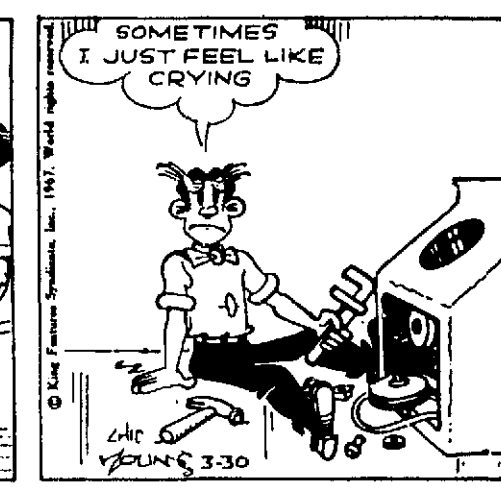

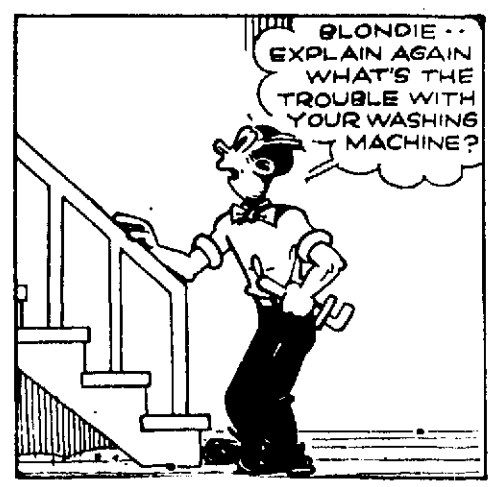

In general, if your opponents have bid exactly one suit other than the final trump, the unusual lead will be the one suit they have bid. When they have each bid a suit, in general, the double calls for the one bid by dummy, when dummy has bid two suits the double calls for a lead of one and it is up to you to look over your hand and choose.

East's double of six hearts shows the Lightner slam double at its best. East is certain that his ace of clubs will be worth a trick. South has used Blackwood and stopped at six when his partner showed one ace. Obviously, South has a club loser.

On the other hand, a review of the bidding shows that West is bound to have a lot of spades and not likely to hold many diamonds.

Then, if West is willing to think a spade void is evident, West will get around to that spade opening.

Sure enough, East has some anxious moments. West thought quite awhile but finally came to the correct conclusion and opened a spade. South went up with the ace and East ruffed. Then East thought a long while about underleading his ace-king of clubs. He would have set the hand two tricks had he done so but East was no hog. He decided to take the sure profit.

Bobcats Winner of Track Meet

By RALPH ROUSTON

Overall strength in running events paved the way as the Hope track teams took convincing victories in a dual meet with Ashdown at the Hope track yesterday afternoon.

The juniors had no trouble whatsoever in taking their division easily, 89 and two-thirds to 35 and one-third. The seniors kept their home record unblemished by whipping the Ashdown boys 46 and two-thirds -56 and one-third.

James Rowe of Hope won the senior pole vault with a personal best of 15 feet even. Jerry Hartfield also scored a personal best, winning the 120 yard high hurdles, with a time of 15.9.

John Spraggins, easily the best quarter-mile in the district, won the 440 in 53.7, now a modest time for him. He also took the high jump with a leap of 5 feet.

Yastrzemski Becoming a Big Hit

Associated Press

Carl Yastrzemski often had that left out feeling when left-handers pitched against the Red Sox, but this spring he is showing signs of becoming the big hit of the Boston Baseball Party.

The left-handed hitter smacked two home runs off southpaw Alvin Jackson Wednesday as the Red Sox nipped St. Louis 10-9.

His first homer came with a man on in the third inning, and his second came with two aboard in the fifth. He also drove in a run with a bases-loaded walk and made the game-ending out by spearing Jim Williams' fly to deep left field.

Earlier this spring, first-year Manager Dick Williams said Yastrzemski, who hit .278 but only .198 against southpaws in 1966, definitely would not be platooned this season.

In other exhibition games Wednesday, Joe Morgan's home run lifted Houston over Atlanta 3-2; Donn Clendenon smacked two homers as Pittsburgh beat the Chicago White Sox 6-4 in 10; Harmon Killebrew's fifth homer of the spring helped Minnesota past Washington 5-0.

The New York Mets beat Cincinnati 5-3; Cleveland nipped California 2-1; Detroit rocked Philadelphia 6-2; Los Angeles edged Kansas City 3-2 and San Francisco and the Chicago Cubs were rained out.

Joe Foy's three-run double in Boston's five-run sixth provided the winning runs. Mike Shannon drove in four runs with two homers and a pair of singles and Orlando Cepeda homered for St. Louis.

In the Houston game, Larry Dierker retired 13 straight while working seven innings for the Astros, while Tony Cloninger set down 12 straight in a seven-inning stint for Atlanta.

Pittsburgh got three runs from Clendenon's homers but needed three straight singles for a run in the 10th to win it. The Pirates added another extra inning run with a sacrifice fly. Chicago's Ken Berry hit a grand slam off Bob Veale in the third.

Dave Boswell, Jim Perry and Al Worthington of the Twins combined to shut out Washington.

The Mets got seven hits, including Ron Swoboda's triple, in scoring all of their runs in the fifth inning. The outburst was at the expense of Cincinnati's Mel Queen, an outfielder trying to make the grade as a pitcher.

Cleveland got two unearned runs in the fifth to overcome California's 1-0 lead fashioned on Dick Reichardt's second-inning homer, and pitchers Gary Bell, Vicente Romo and Dick Padatz made them stand up.

Doubles by George Korince and Dick McAuliffe and three singles enabled Detroit to break a 1-1 tie with three runs in the eighth against Philadelphia.

Los Angeles got its three runs in the first inning, two of them on Bob Bailey's homer, in beating Kansas City. The Dodgers, however, lost center fielder Willie Davis for seven to 10 days. Davis sprained his left ankle while attempting to steal second.

Pro Cagers Open Play for Title

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - The Western Division, National Basketball Association Championship series opens here tonight with both coaches quietly confident - and without an alibi.

"Our club is ready, both mentally and physically," said player-coach Richie Guerin of the St. Louis Hawks. "Our chances of winning are excellent."

Warrior Coach Bill Sharman said much the same and noted that his recently injury-riddled players are near a peak.

Guerin fears Rick Barry, the NBA's leading scorer with a 35.6 season average, and Nate Thurmond, the good-scoring rebounding ace whose mid-season injury-forced absence saw the Warriors plunge into a losing streak.

"The effectiveness of Zelmo Beaty and Gene Tommohlen against Barry probably will determine the outcome," he said.

If the Hawks stop Barry, what about Thurmond?

"We've got to keep Thurmond from the boards," the coach replied.

He expects the series to be decided there. Thurmond has averaged 21.3 rebounds this season and 18.7 points.

The Warriors go into this best four-of-seven series with a 5-4 season record against the Hawks. The second game will be played in the Cow Palace here Saturday night. Then the teams play in St. Louis next week on Wednesday and Saturday.

Additional games, as needed, will be in San Francisco on April 10, St. Louis April 12 and San Francisco April 14.

The division champion then goes into the league championship series, also four-of-seven, against the Eastern Division winner, Philadelphia or Boston. The series opens Friday at Philadelphia.

Bad Day for Turner at Raceway

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) -

It was a good day at Atlanta International Raceway for Cale Yarborough but a bad one for Curtis Turner.

Yarborough, driving a 1967 Ford, grabbed the pole position Wednesday for Sunday's $77,000 Atlanta 500, but Turner was lucky to escape without serious injury when his 1967 Chevelle was demolished after it flipped and overturned several times.

Turner was taken to a hospital for observation but was released Wednesday night.

The Charlotte, N.C., driver also lost his AFR records for one lap and four laps to Yarborough, also from Charlotte.

Yarborough's four-lap average was 148.996 miles per hour and his one-lap speed was 149.461.

Yarborough narrowly escaped Turner's crash. He was behind Turner on a test run when the Chevelle began to spin.

Smokey Yunick, who owned the Chevelle and had teamed with Turner to get the qualifying record at AFR in 1966, was thankful his driver had escaped with his life.

"It was the wildest ride I've ever seen a man take and live," he said. "I don't remember seeing one that bad in recent years."

The car went out of control coming out of the fourth turn, flipped end over end for 150 yards in front of about 2,000 grandstand onlookers, broke through an infield rail and burst into flame. But Turner walked away from the wreckage saying, "I'm okay."

Taking the outside pole position Wednesday was Richard Petty of Hardsman, N.C., whose 1967 Plymouth toured the track at an average speed of 148.351 m.p.h.

Three-time winner Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., was third in his 1967 Ford with an average of 148.250, and David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., was fourth at 147.976 in his 1967 Dodge.

The other four positions in Wednesday's qualifying were won by A. J. Foyt, Houston, Tex., fifth in a 1967 Ford at 147.882; Tiny Lund, Cross, S.C., sixth in a 1966 Plymouth at 147.672; Darel Dieringer, Charlotte, seventh, in a 1967 Ford at 147.451; and Jim Paschal, High Point, N.C., eighth in a 1967 Plymouth at 147.159.

Daytona 500 champion Mario Andretti of Nazareth, Pa., was among those failing to qualify. He gets another chance today when eight more spots in the 44-car starting field will be decided.

Clay Licked in Draft Dodging Try

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay came to his former home town and suffered two setbacks in his fight to stay out of the Army.

The champ was denied a court order to prevent his induction. And, a draft board in Houston, Texas, the town Clay now calls home, sent him word to appear April 28 for induction.

The aftermath of Wednesday's action on the two fronts apparently will be more legal maneuvering.

Attorney Hayden C. Covington of New York said he would appeal the federal court decision to the 6th Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati and to the Supreme Court. He also indicated he might start legal action in Houston before the induction date.

Clay, meanwhile, conferred for an hour Wednesday with Dr. Martin Luther King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Neither would say what they talked about but said they had some problems in common.

Clay then went to a meeting Wednesday night of advocates for an open housing law that is pending in Louisville.

Clay was due to be inducted April 11. He asked that his case be transferred to Texas. A spokesman for the Houston draft board said the induction notice was mailed Wednesday, shortly after the change of board request was received from Louisville.

"There was an April 28 call already set up before we received approval of his request to be in our jurisdiction," said a spokesman for the Houston board. "There are several others included in the call. He received no special privileges nor penalties."

Clay petitioned U.S. District Court to create a panel of three judges to rule on his suit to suspend the draft of all Kentucky Negroes while the court decided if Clay should be inducted. Clay argued there was racial imbalance on the draft board at Louisville.

Big Names in Meet at Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Arnold Palmer, Julius Boros, Doug Sanders and Gary Player - those were the names most frequently mentioned today as the $125,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament got underway.

They shaped up as the most formidable of the 144 contenders in the chase for $25,000 top money in the richest tournament of the professional tour thus far this year.

Palmer, who elected to sharp-shoot in his game for next week's Masters under competitive conditions while Jack Nicklaus preferred to practice at Augusta, Marlyn Srinney, 194 has won two of the 10 circuit tournaments this year. So has Boros.

Sanders, the GGO defending champion, has demonstrated a liking for the par-71 Sedgefield Country Club course measuring about 7,000 yards. He has won twice and lost a playoff here in the last four years.

Player demonstrated that his game was nearing its peak with a 66 in Wednesday's pro-amateur play.

Palmer is $252 away from becoming the first professional to reach the $800,000 plateau in official tournament winnings.

Other tournament winners this year who are on hand are Bob Goalby, Tom Nieporte and Dan Sikes.

Ken Still shot a 65, six under par, to win top money of $500 in Wednesday's pro-amateur. He is one of several players still in the running for two Masters invitations which will be determined on the basis of tournament performance this year.

Injuries Really Hurt the Astros

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Jim Landis, Lee Bales and Darrell Griffith aren't exactly Willie Mays, Rich Allen and Bill Mazeroski.

But Manager Grady Hatton of the Houston Astros believes that players of the caliber of the first trio could have meant the difference between a highly successful season and another disappointing, unsuccessful one.

Landis, Bales and Griffith are players the Astros acquired during the winter — not to step right in as starters but to step in if something happens to any starters.

Ed Mathews was another acquisition, but he'll probably serve a slightly different function.

The Astros were sailing along in the surprisingly high position of fifth place last season until their ridiculously bad fortune began. As late as July 22 they were in fifth. But injuries to such players as Joe Morgan, Jim Wynn and Bob Lillis were too much, and Houston plummeted to eighth.

The string of injuries started June 25 when second baseman Morgan fractured a kneecap. Lillis, Morgan's replacement, separated his right shoulder; Lillis' replacement, Felix Mantilla, pulled groin muscles and Julio Gotay, Mantilla's replacement, pulled a hamstring muscle.

The injury bug hit the outfield Aug. 1 when Wynn ran into a center field fence and fractured a wrist. He was out the rest of the year.

Nor was the pitching staff passed over. Bob Bruce, Barry Latman and Dick Farrell all were out at various times. In fact, at one time, 13 of the 25 Astros were under doctor's care.

Landis, obtained from Cleveland, can play any outfield position while Bales, formerly of the Atlanta Braves, can play second, short and third. Griffith, who came to Houston from the New York Mets, can play second, short and third plus the outfield.

Mathews, a Brave for 15 years, was the Astros' biggest acquisition. Hatton plans to use him primarily as a backup man at his normal position, third, and his new position, first.

But if Bob Aspromonte doesn't come through again at third or Chuck Harrison doesn't make it at first, Mathews will be No. 1 somewhere.

Morgan is completely healthy and will team with shortstop Sonny Jackson as one of the better second-short combinations in the league. John Bateman will do most of the catching.

Assuming he's sound, Wynn will play center field while Rusty Staub will be in right and Aaron Pointer is the leading candidate for left.

For his pitching staff, Hatton will start off with Dave Giusti, Larry Dierker and Mike Cuellar. Rookie Don Wilson is making a strong bid for the fourth starting spot while others competing with him are Chris Zachary, Bruce Von Hoff, Arnold Umbeck, Danny Coombs and Tom Griffin.

The bullpen is set, with Farrell, Latman, Claudy Raymond, Carroll Sembers, Bo Belinsky and Dan Schneider comprising the crew.

Ranger Coach Happiest Man in Garden

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
The hats were flying all around Madison Square Garden and nobody was happier to see them than Emile Francis, the dapper little general manager-coach of the New York Rangers.

The Rangers thumped Detroit 10-5 with their biggest scoring night of the year Wednesday and moved into third place in the National Hockey League as Montreal dropped Toronto 5-3. The Canadiens have 73 points, the Rangers 72 and Toronto 71 in the jockeying for playoff positions.

"We waited a long time for that kind of night," said Francis after three-goal hat tricks by Rod Gilbert and Donnie Marshall led the Ranger rout.

The three goals snapped a home ice scoreless drought that had stretched since New Year's night for Gilbert. The All-Star right wing for the first half of the season when he scored 20 goals, Gilbert had managed just five in the second half until Wednesday night.

Marshall and Vic Hadfield scored on the first two shots the Rangers had and the New York margin was as much as 7-2 until a Red Wing flurry led by Dean Prentice and Norm Ullman cut it to 7-5. Then Marshall's two goals put the Rangers out of danger.

Defenseman J.C. Tremblay scored one goal and assisted on two others in Montreal's key victory over the Maple Leafs.

It left the Canadiens in sole possession of second place with two games left to play. Montreal meets Chicago Saturday and Detroit Sunday. The Rangers, one point behind, play Toronto Saturday and Chicago Sunday. The Maple Leafs play Boston Sunday after hosting New York Saturday.

Illinois Has a New Coaching Crew

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — The ill wind of athletic scandal at Illinois, after wrecking careers of two veteran head coaches, Wednesday had launched new careers for two products of the assistant coaching ranks.

"It's like coming home," said Jim Valek and Harry Schmidt, former Illinois athletic stars, named Tuesday to succeed, respectively, head football coach Pete Elliott and head basketball coach Harry Combes. Elliott and Combes were pressured into resignation by a Big Ten suspension threat against Illinois.

Valek, 40, former grid assistant at four colleges, and Schmidt, 31, cage aide at New Mexico the past three seasons, were given one-year contracts to help steer Illinois back on the Big Ten's straight and narrow path of recruitment.

"We faced this same kind of thing when Coach Paul Dietzel took over at South Carolina last year," said Valek, who also served under Dietzel four previous seasons at Army.

"Just as our tenders went out, the school was placed on probation for recruiting violations before our arrival. This didn't ruin South Carolina's recruiting. It made kids mad at what had been done to their state university. It firmed up their determination to go to school there."

Mailing date for Big Ten football tenders is Saturday.

Valek, a star Illini end from 1945 to 1948 and also an assistant football coach at Wichita and Illinois, said he hoped Elliott's entire seven-member staff would stay with him.

Valek said he was not concerned over the Big Ten code which forbids red-shirting, limits football tenders to 30 per year and bans financial aid beyond room, board and tuition, prohibiting the $15 per month spending money permitted by the NCAA.

"If it takes $15 a month to have athletes come to Illinois, we don't want them," said Valek.

Schmidt, Illini basketball captain in 1957, also starred in the National Industrial Basketball League for the Denver Truckers and coached high school basketball at Moline, Ill., and Davenport, Iowa, before joining the New Mexico staff.

Schmidt faces a stiffer rebuilding job than Valek. The Illini scandal not only forced the March 19 resignations of Elliott, Combes and assistant basketball coach Howie Braun, but also permanently benched two basketball stars, Rich Jones and Ron Dunlap.

Additionally, a promising reserve, Steve Kuberski, was declared ineligible until the 1968-1969 season.

Like Valek, Schmidt said he would concentrate recruiting within the state of Illinois and added that the replacement of Braun as his assistant would be "an established Illinois high school coach."

Sebring Has Some Fine Competition

SEBRING, Fla. (AP) — With Enzo Ferrari's first team staying in Italy, the rest of the world's top sports car pilots hurtled through first workouts Wednesday in preparation for Saturday's 12-hour Sebring endurance test.

Noticeable absent as the racers sped around the course were the red four-liter prototypes with "which Ferrari snarled to a 1-2-3 triumph at Daytona Beach in the first of the 1967 races for the world championship.

This across-the-board victory got the Italian off to a blazing start in the battle to regain the championship he lost to America's Ford last year after a long reign as king of the world's race courses.

For first place at Daytona — the first of eight races in which the manufacturing title is won — Ferrari collected nine points. By also grabbing second and third, he blanketed out the 10 points awarded for those places.

Wetzel Best Goalie in World Meet

VIENNA (AP) — The United States finished fifth in the World Ice Hockey Championships, won by Russia for the fifth straight time, but the American goalie, Carl Wetzel of Detroit, was named today as the best netminder of the tournament.

The 27-year-old Wetzel was the only goalie to score two shutouts. He isn't eligible to compete on the U.S. team in the Winter Olympic Games next year, however, because he has had some professional experience.

The unbeaten Russians completed a sweep of their games by beating Czechoslovakia 4-2 Wednesday for their seventh straight. The Soviets placed four men on the All-Star team picked by sports writers.

On the basis of their performance here, the Russians have become heavy favorites to win the Olympic title in Grenoble, France, next year.

In another game Wednesday, Sweden upset Canada 6-0 to win second place in the tournament. Canada finished third with the Czechs fourth and the United States fifth, the last spot to qualify automatically for next year's Winter Olympics.

Kerr Named Pro Coach of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — John (Red) Kerr of the Chicago Bulls was named the Coach of the Year in the National Basketball Association today.

Kerr led the Bulls into the Western Division playoffs in their first NBA season. They lost to St. Louis in the semifinals.

Kerr, a former star at Illinois set an NBA record by playing in 917 consecutive games with the Syracuse Nationals, Philadelphia 76ers and Baltimore Bullets before turning to coaching.

Kerr won Coach of the Year honors with 17 votes in the balloting of a 30-man committee of sports writers, three from each NBA city.

Alex Hannum of the Philadelphia 76ers, Eastern Division champs, was second in the voting with 11. Bill Sharman of the San Francisco Warriors, the Western Division champs, was third with two. No other coach received a vote.

HIALEAH, Fla. (AP) — Former polo star Michael G. Phipps has two fine-looking 3-year-olds in training under former mallet swinger Del W. Carroll.

Besides having Gentlemen James well-staked in quest of the Kentucky Derby and other classics, Phipps has Bold Ambition, a strong running son of Bold Ruler-Be Ambitious. Bold Ambition won his first start of the year at Hialeah. He was short but held on to beat the favored Mr. Sidney in a maiden test for colts and geldings.

CURT JOHNSON

Members of Kiwanis will receive a first-hand look at the magic of microwave communications April 4, 1967, in a special program to be presented at Town and Country arranged by Art Strech and given by Curt Johnson, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company science demonstrator.

The new program, called "Skyways of Communication", uses miniaturized radio relay towers and a tableful of other electronic equipment to demonstrate the unique characteristics, speed and dependability of microwaves.

Royals to Get a New Coach Soon

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Royals can expect to have a new coach "within a week to ten days," General Manager Pepper Wilson said after the announcement that Jack McMahon has accepted another job.

McMahon, who had led the Royals since 1963, Wednesday was named coach and general manager of the new National Basketball Association team at San Diego.

There had been talk that McMahon's days at Cincinnati were numbered ever since the Royals went on a losing streak last season. The team finished with a 39-42 record for third place in the NBA's Eastern Division. McMahon's record in the NBA is 199-160.

"I think Jack did a very good job for us," Wilson said Wednesday night when reached by telephone at Denver. "San Diego asked for permission to talk to him about that job a month ago, and we gave them permission. His interest in the job was an open secret."

N.Y. Printers Threaten to Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — The possibility of an immediate strike by the Printers Union against five of the city's major newspapers at midnight tonight appears to have eased.

Bertram A. Powers, president of Typographical Union No. 6, said Wednesday that his union did not plan to strike tonight even if no agreement has been reached by midnight when the current contract expires.

Powers said, however, that the union planned to put pressure on the New York Daily News. He said the News had been an obstacle to an overall settlement. Powers said that instead of strike action he planned to hold a chapel meeting of printers at the News at 2 a.m. Friday. When chapel meetings are in progress no work is done.

The situation remained uncertain in other disputes between newspaper unions and the publishers of the News, The New York Times, the New York World Journal Tribune, the Long Island Star-Journal and the Long Island Press. The five newspapers are members of the Publishers Association of New York City.

The New York Post is not a member of the association and bargains separately.

A strike would be the fifth newspaper walkout in less than four years. Since Nov. 1, 1962, some or all of the city's major dailies have been shut down by strikes for a total of 41 weeks, or an average of one of every five weeks.

During that time, the number of major dailies in New York was cut from nine to six. The New York Mirror halted publication shortly after one lengthy strike and the Herald Tribune died before the last strike was settled on Sept. 12, 1966.

The unions are seeking new contracts to replace the two-year contracts for 17,000 salaried and hourly rated employees of the five newspapers which are members of the publishers association.

So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty.—James 2:12.

Indian to Probe Leftist Groups

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Home Minister Y. B. Chavan told the Indian Parliament today the government will investigate leftist opposition charges that the United States used its big stock of Indian rupees to influence India's general election.

Socialists and Communists have claimed the U.S. embassy deployed vast sums of rupees acquired from the sale of grain under the food-for-peace program to help members of the ruling Congress party in the election.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — After nine years of watching Raymond Burr playing smooth, shrewd, unbeatable "Perry Mason," it was interesting Tuesday night to see him playing a testy, tough-talking heart-of-gold detective.

The vehicle in which he starred, a two-hour made-for-television feature called "Ironside," serves as the kick-off for an NBC series of the same name next season.

Although NBC called it a "major motion picture," the show was a routine whodunit that would have comfortably occupied an hour of television time. It was padded to the bursting point with all sorts of irrelevant odds and ends to stretch it through a second hour.

Burr plays Robert Ironside, San Francisco chief of detectives. He was wounded and permanently paralyzed by a sniper's bullet in the first few minutes of the show. Once he was put in his wheel chair, the program was devoted to introducing his subordinates and solving the shooting.

Whirling like a dervish in his wheelchair, Burr plays Ironside as a sort of combination Lionel Barrymore and Nero Wolfe, with some colorful, rugged and un-Masonish flourishes like dropping his G's, cussing mildly and belting bourbon steadily.

The permanent casting has been carefully set so that the ready at home, the 35-year-old plots can move in a number of predictable directions. His asstant include a handsome young detective, a pretty policewoman who is also a rich socialite and an angry young drop-out who is hired to be our hero's "legs."

The story Tuesday night strained credibility often. Ironside cleverly deduced from the fact that six acorns were found in a sycamore grove that a pack rat had stolen the important evidence. Once they recovered the evidence, it was a cinch to hunt down the suspect. The story concluded with a surprise ending that was not much of a surprise to a detective story fan.

Steve Allen will return to his specialty — variety — in a summer season show occupying the spot now filled by CBS's Danny Kaye show. It is one of four hot weather variety shows planned by the network.

"The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour" will have a breather while the comedy team of Jack Burns and Avery Schreiber and the Doodletown Pipers fill in. Red Skelton's temporary reason, "it was interesting Tuesday night to see him playing a testy, tough-talking heart-of-gold detective."

Coach Decides to Stay Put

DALLAS (AP) — The coach the Dallas Chapparrals wanted to inaugurate their start in professional basketball has turned them down.

Chapparrals' operational man, Max Williams said Wednesday night that Don Haskins decided to remain at the University of Texas-El Paso, where his team won the national collegiate title last year.

Unrealism in Proposal by Thant

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — There was a streak of realism in the proposal by U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations, for restoring peace to Vietnam. The United States apparently told him so, but in a gentle way, in short, a truce can be more complicated than he seems to imagine.

Originally Thant, a mild Burmese Buddhist, proposed three steps to end the war: a halt to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam; scaled down fighting by all sides; negotiations among the parties involved, including the Viet Cong.

The United States position was this: It would not halt the bombing unless North Vietnam gave some indication it was willing to tone down its side of the war. The United States had had some bombing pauses with no response from Hanoi.

At the same time this country had expressed willingness to discuss or negotiate without prior condition.

But North Vietnam took, and still does, the position that the way to restore peace is for the "United States to stop its aggression." So Thant's original proposal came to nothing.

Then Tuesday he unveiled his new proposal although it had somehow been leaked and was known before he addressed his Tuesday news conference. He made his new suggestion in one-two-three order.

There were the three proposals: a general stand-still truce, preliminary talks, and an international conference to return Vietnam to peace.

The Johnson administration promptly announced it had been informed by Thant previously about his three new proposals and had answered him, saying the United States welcomed his suggestions and was consulting its allies.

But buried in the middle of the American answer was this paragraph: "The United States believes it would be desirable and contributory to serious negotiations if an effective cessation of hostilities, as the first element in the three-point proposal, could be promptly negotiated."

This seemed to tell him, without being harsh about it, that a truce is fine but in order to get a truce the two sides have to discuss it first. There are some obvious reasons behind such thinking.

If there is going to be a truce, the two sides have to agree on

Music Center

By DICK KLEINER
West Coast Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

LOS ANGELES—(NEA)—The week of April 9 may go down in history as the time when Los Angeles stopped kidding around.

During that week, the two new theaters that complete the Music Center complex will open. With the already-opened Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, they will give Los Angeles a cultural triumvirate to rival any in the world.

Ever since the city opened for business, Los Angeles has had an inferiority complex. Perhaps much of it was due to some rules for it, for otherwise how could a stop in the fighting be assured in such a wide-ranging jungle war as the one in Vietnam?

And if there was no real truce, how could the two sides proceed to Thant's second step, the preliminary talks — after the truce — and before the big international conference?

And just hours before Thant made his proposals public North Vietnam seemed flatly to have rejected them, although the Hanoi answer itself seemed all gummied up.

Hanoi said Thant was departing from reality in calling upon both sides to cease fire and hold unconditional negotiations while the United States was committing aggression against Vietnam.

Hanoi said the correct way to settle the Vietnam problem is for the United States to cease its aggression. But Thant's latest efforts have a background.

The United States asked him last December to take whatever steps he considered necessary to bring about talks for a cease-fire. He went home to Burma and early this month met in Rangoon with North Vietnamese representatives to discuss peace possibilities.

Apparently he got nowhere for when he returned to New York he was pessimistic, saying the war "is going to be prolonged and bloody." He said he saw no prospect for peace.

But he told Arthur J. Goldberg, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, about his new proposals and sent them to other interested governments March 14. The United States gave him its answer March 18.

tion, film, slides and television.

The Ahmanson will be more conventional and, hopefully, commercial. Davidson says the Taper is virtually sold out—more than 30,000 subscriptions have been sold—but it will still operate at a loss. The Ahmanson will, in effect, underwrite the Taper, although the entire Music Center is technically a non-profit enterprise.

"We know we will have a deficit operation," Davidson says, "but the question is—how much of a deficit?"

He believes that Los Angeles will support the theaters—in fact, he feels a civic hunger for good theater—and he thinks that the huge talent pool in this city from movies and television will give him an unending stream of actors to draw on.

Already, however, there is an undercurrent of talk about the first Taper play, "The Devils," which centers about a 17th-century priest, accused of being a devil because of his love of fleshly pleasures. Los Angeles is a conservative city and Davidson knows it.

"I hope controversy doesn't become an issue," he says. "It would be embarrassing. I'm aware that this is a civic enterprise and I don't want to offend anyone—but I don't want to be told what to do, either."

How far he will be able to go remains to be seen. But that is really a side issue. What is important is that, at last, Los Angeles has a theater complex to be proud of. Typically, however, the icing on the cake got in the way of the serious business. The architect put a lovely pool right in front of the door to the scenery dock. Whenever they have to move sets into the Taper, they have to build a wooden bridge across the pool.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

UNDESIRABLE-TYPE JOKE

Dear Helen: This past year some "friends" of mine told an undesirable type girl I was madly in love with her. I tried tactfully to tell her the truth, but she only said I was playing it cool. It's all over high school about "us." I have become the joke of the year.

She keeps calling me up and tracking me down, and other girls won't date me because they're too busy laughing. Maybe she figures if she makes me unpopular enough, I'll have to settle for her.

I can't ignore her and I was brought up not to treat girls mean. How can I shake this pest? BOTHERED OUT OF MY MIND Dear BOOMM: Forget tact and tell her to go chase someone she can catch. You can't eradicate pests with kindness.—H.

Dear Helen: My problem is I have a four-year-old devil for a brother. He has enough energy for 10 kids. And he uses it all to be mean.

Last week he shut our dog in a garage record cabinet we never use and then pulled off all the knob. We finally found the dog a day later when we heard his whimpering.

I have to keep all my make-up and perfume out of reach because he dumps them all together.

He's not allowed to watch Batman for a month because after he watches he tries to jump off the cupboard. Spanking doesn't help. He just laughs.

And when I baby-sit him—wow! What do you do with a kid like this?—THE DEVIL'S SISTER

Dear Sis: ... Just what your mother does: Watch him like a hawk, train him where you can, and hope the years will mellow him.

P. S. Abnormally destructive or erratic children should be examined by a doctor.

Dear Helen: I thought you might like to hear one of the results of your effort to help servicemen. Here's a letter I received from a 19-year-old Marine Corporal in Vietnam, after I sent my letter to Vietnam Mail Call:

"Dear Leslie: First I want to thank you for writing me, and many girls like you for writing to guys over here. I don't know if you realize it or not, but you and the people like you are doing as much as us, just by sitting at home writing letters. There is nothing better at the end of a hard day than to receive a letter from someone back home. It surely keeps a guy going, especially when he's down in the dumps and wondering why we are over here.

"Then when a letter arrives, there's no more wondering. We know why—for you and the rest of the people in our wonderful country.—W.C. BURNS"

Dear Helen: Help! Not for ourselves, but people who would like to write to specific servicemen in Vietnam.

For the past eight months I've been providing civilians all over the U.S.A. with the names of men who want letters from home. Their ages range from 19 to 39. Now I'm swamped with letters for Vietnam; so also is a friend of mine.

Would you please ask those who want to write to fellows overseas to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to either of the following addresses? We will be pleased to send along a name or two. It would help if your readers would enclose their ages, too.

Cook Onion Mushroom Pot Roast

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

By now everyone in the country must know how to cook a pot roast in aluminum foil. Anyone who has tried it agrees that this is a lazy, but good, way to cook a less tender cut of meat.

There are many versions of the meat-in-aluminum foil idea. One popular version uses one-half package each of two varieties of dry soup and puts the roast in a roasting pan with an aluminum foil cover. Use a blade pot roast or a chuck cut.

As for the leftover one-half packages of soup, reclose the aluminum-foil packages and save for the next pot roast, or use the two soups to make onion-mushroom soup.

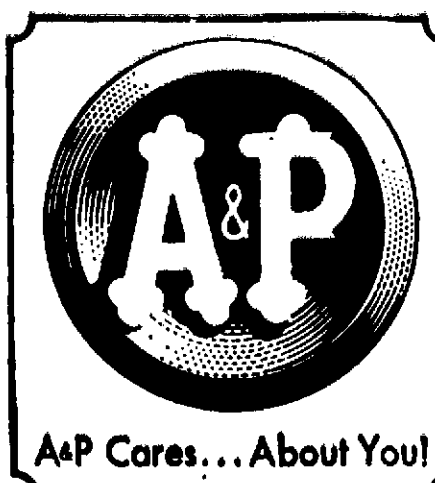

ONION-MUSHROOM POT ROAST

- 1 blade pot roast (about 4 pounds)
- 1/2 envelope (about 3 tablespoons) Swiss golden onion soup mix
- 1/2 envelope (about 3 tablespoons) Swiss cream of mushroom soup mix

Trim excess fat from roast. Place meat in roasting pan. Combine onion and mushroom soup mixes; sprinkle over meat. Cover with aluminum foil. Roast in 325-degree (slow) oven until meat is tender, about 2 hours. Makes about 8 servings.

To thicken gravy: Blend 1 tablespoon cornstarch and 1/4 cup water. Remove roasted meat from pan and place on heated platter. Stir cornstarch mixture into pan gravy. Stirring constantly, bring gravy to boil and boil 1 minute. Serve hot with sliced pot roast.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

MULTILEVEL FARMHOUSE—A 10 by 10-foot foyer eliminates any congestion at this critical area and the central location cuts unnecessary circulation to a minimum. The kitchen is arranged to save steps and has easy access to the dining room and to outside. An important mud closet and pantry also are close at hand. Home builders can substitute large sliding glass doors in lieu of the recreation room windows if indoor-outdoor entertaining is desired. Bedrooms are above street level for privacy, with the den being able to serve as a guest bedroom. Architect for Plan HA391Y is Herman York, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica, N.Y. 11432. There are 1,536 square feet on the lower levels and 919 square feet on the upper level.

fill their primary obligation of patrolling the highways. Hurst sought to amend the bill to abolish the Criminal Investigation Division of the State Police, but a motion to expunge the vote by which the Senate originally passed the bill failed 11-13.

The Senate also refused to bring up the administration's $1-an-hour minimum wage bill. A similar measure was introduced in the House Wednesday. The House defeated a resolution by Wells calling for the House investigation of the reported "inducements" to vote for the Hot Springs gambling bill.

"The only thing of value that we bring into and can take away from here is our honor, integrity and our good word," Wells said. "I have not been offered a bribe and I do not believe that you have."

Wells has testified before the grand jury. He says he is one of the legislators who told two newsmen were jailed for contempt of court.

The House approved a resolution calling for sine die adjournment at noon Friday.

In other action, the House: —Approved a bill appropriating $225,000 to add 6,000 seats to the north end of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. —Approved a bill giving $3,000 a year to each of the constitutional officers except the governor and lieutenant governor for "public relations" expenses.

—Failed to pass on reconsideration a bill revising the requirements for wholesale cigarette distributors to receive a permit from the Revenue Department. The old method was declared unconstitutional by the State Supreme Court.

—Failed to pass a bill allowing county judges to buy permanent type road structures without advertising for bids.

—Approved a bill giving $155 bonuses to teachers who retired after the last school year.

—Passed a bill permitting an extra set of election judges.

In other action Wednesday, the Senate:

—Approved a bill to exempt newspaper carriers from the states' child labor laws.

—Approved a bill that will permit the city of Springdale to annex contiguous territory in Benton County.

—Approved a House bill levying a severance tax of $2 per 1,000 barrels of salt water processed by bromine extracting companies.

—Approved a House bill authorizing cities or counties levying a motor vehicle tax to use the revenues to provide ambulance service.

—Approved a bill appropriating $609,000 to air condition the Benton Unit of the State Hospital.

The Senate convenes at 11 a.m. Thursday.

TIES WIBC PIN RECORD ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Mildred Ignizio is only 20 but she shares the Woman's International Bowling Congress record for a three-game series.

On Jan. 20 she rolled 257-256-729 for a 792 series at the North Park Lanes. The record was set in the fall of 1963 by Janet Harman of Norwalk, Calif.

Miss Ignizio, a 208 average bowler, came within a ten pin of an 800 series. She rolled eight straight strikes in her third game, left the ten pin on a solid hit in the ninth frame, then finished with three strikes in the 10th frame. It was her fourth sanctioned 700 series of the season, all at North Park.

When anger rises, think of the consequences.—Confucius, Chinese philosopher.

(Editor's Note: The Mayor of Hope received this letter from a former resident. Perhaps some reader may be able to help answer questions for the ex-Ark-ansan.)

Dear Mr. Mayor: I have what will no doubt seem, a rather unusual request to make. I am a former resident of Hope, and plan to make a "Sentimental Journey" back there and would like whatever information you might have available. Like perhaps a brochure on the interesting side of a light of Hope. That sort of thing. I was born in Hope on June 2, 1915, and left there about 1926 or 1927. It's been a long time, but some the warmest and fondest memories of my boy-hood center in Hope.

I realize that things change, and that many of the people that I knew, then, may have moved away, even as I. However, perhaps I can locate an "old-time-er" who can tell me if my best friend Willard Anderson is still around. People like Miss Betsy Green, Mabel Ethredge, and Mrs. Turner, teacher and principal of Olesby School. I wonder if Mr. Holliman still owns the Soda Co. If any of the Williams boys are still about (there were four.)

Do you still have the Watermelon Festival. I would like to take pictures and prove to these Californians how big Melons can grow.

Do you know if there are people who take in boarders and serve home made biscuits, corn bread, beans, and especially "chow-chow" uncooked?

Is the newspaper "The Star" still in existence? I'm enclosing a dollar for a copy if it's still around. Perhaps it will answer some of my questions like is Middle Brook still the largest food store in town, is there still a Fields Lumber Company? I plan to spend about two weeks in Hope later this summer, so I would very much appreciate any information you might be able to give me.

Thanking you in advance for your time and trouble, I remain Sincerely yours,

CHARLES B. TOTTY

P. S. After thirty-five years in California I am very anxious to see Arkansas again.

Editor-The-Star: Thank you so much for the excellent publicity you gave our Nicolo Marionette production. We were delighted with the newspaper coverage. The children seemed to love the show, and Hope Junior Auxiliary was happy to be able to bring it to Hope.

Thanks again for your interest and cooperation. Yours truly,

Kennedy Family Ends Vacation

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children are back home after an abbreviated vacation in Acapulco.

They returned Tuesday after she had apparently been disturbed by newsmen and photographers at the fashionable Mexican resort.

When they left for Acapulco March 17 the Kennedys had planned to stay about two weeks.

A tight security guard was provided on their arrival here.

Pencil's Originator

The lead pencil owes its origin to Joseph Dixon, American inventor, who was a pioneer in the industrial use of graphite. A printer and lithographer by trade, he began the manufacture of lead pencils as early as 1827 in Marblehead, Mass.

Life In Arkansas

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
Good things are supposedly worth waiting for but this is almost ridiculous.

The First State Bank and Trust Co. of Conway opened for business in May 1946. That spring Thomas G. Wilson, then executive vice president of the bank, applied at the Conway Post Office for one of its largest postal deposit boxes.

Recently, 21 years later, the application was granted.

Wilson, now president of the bank, said the Post Office notified him of the vacancy of a big box after it was given up by Frauenthal & Schwarz, Inc.

The firm had held the box for almost 40 years.

Wilson said the bank has had a smaller Post Office box, far too small to meet its needs. The Conway Post Office has only about a dozen of the large boxes.

Allan Gilbert Jr., Northwest Arkansas Times columnist, made a recent trip to Benton County.

He reports he stopped by the Bentonville Chamber of Commerce to say hello and discovered a short note on the door: "Gone to Lunch. Back in 30 minutes."

Gilbert said it was about 3:15 p.m.

It was a good day for signs, too. Over toward Beaver Lake Gilbert spotted an enterprising business establishment offering: "Worms. Wholesale and Retail."

On down the road a piece was a freshly painted sign. It read, in big black letter: "Unedr New Mgr."

Gilbert also related this story about a new chamber manager in a small Ozark town. It seems the gentleman wanted to get acquainted with his environs.

He drove to the town's main cafe. Inside he took a look at the menu.

It listed as specul for the day: freyed chicken, rost beef, or cat fish, with choice of two vegitables, mashed taters, greens, howmany or limas."

The Chamber manager asked the waitress who was responsible for making out the menu.

"I am, sir," the young lady said.

"Well," said the man, "does the owner of this place okay the menu after you make it out?"

"No" was the reply. "He trusts me. You see, I'm the only one here that can spell."

Manager Alvin Dark of the Kansas City Athletics, 45, a native of Comanche, Okla., broke in with the Boston Braves in 1946.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

In Crush of Humanity,
Loneliness is Increasing

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In earlier times the companionship of family, village and small congregations was a way of life. Several factors are disrupting this pattern, such as the urbanization of the majority of the population with larger and larger apartment houses and ever smaller family units where one rarely knows one's neighbors. To this must be added the automation of innumerable facets of business and industrial life. As a result, satisfying companionship is becoming scarcer and the loneliness of the city is being more acutely felt.

Some men have sought solitude for contemplative thinking but there are degrees of solitude and a variety of ways in which it can affect us. When Admiral Byrd spent a winter alone in Antarctica he had a feeling of great tranquility in the first few weeks but as time wore on this feeling was replaced by anxiety and depressed loneliness. He concluded that a man cannot do without the sounds, smells, touch and voices of other human beings.

Alexander Selkirk, the Robinson Crusoe of real life, when rescued from his island was found to have lost the ability to speak coherently. Far from being the lucid diarist pictured by Defoe, he had suffered such a personality deterioration as to be a complete social misfit for the rest of his life.

To test the effects of complete solitude Dr. John C. Lilly had volunteers float face down in a water tank shut off from all sight and sound and with other body sensations held to a minimum. An initial period of pleasant relaxation was followed by mounting tension, then, after only 2 1/2 hours, by fantastic hallucinations. No one in his right mind would choose to be that lonely.

So to combat the loneliness imposed by modern living, people are moving or changing jobs often than ever before, getting divorced and remarrying, dining out more and spending more time watching television. Some seek solace in alcohol while others cling to house pets or potted plants for companionship. The problem is especially acute with older persons. Although there is no easy solution it is obvious that no one is ever too old to need a purpose in life and that a search for companionship supplies many of us with such a purpose. Variety is not just the spice of life, it is a prime essential.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)

"Somebody must have put the finger on me," said George Raft, barred from England as an "undesirable." "The only thing I can figure is that it was the FBI. And so I'm going to try to see J. Edgar Hoover and find out what they've got against me."

The onetime coin-flipping gangster of movies, still dapper at 71, was discussing the latest blow in a decade of personal trouble. For a year he had been front-man and greeter for George Raft's Colony sporting club, a Las Vegas-type casino in London, where gambling is legal.

During a trip home, Raft was notified that he was one of eight Americans whose "continued presence in the United Kingdom would not be conducive to the public good."

A month later, Raft is still shocked. "What have I done?" he asks as he chain smokes — despite an asthmatic condition — in his comfortable Beverly Hills home.

"They haven't accused me of anything; they've just barred me from the country without charges, without a trial or anything. And just when I was about to start participating in the profits of the Colony. All I got was an apartment, the use of a car and a small salary until the investors were paid off. Now they have been, but I won't be there to collect."

"I suppose the British had some information on me, and it must have come from the FBI. I'm going to New York this week to see about a job, and I plan to drop down to Washington and wait in Hoover's office until he sees me. I know him; once I introduced him to Aly Khan at Del Mar race track."

"Hell, I'm not a member of any mob, never was. Sure, I know some guys that are, but I know a lot of people. What am I supposed to do when those guys say hello to me — tell them to get lost?"

Raft, who was married briefly in 1923 to Grayce Mulrooney and never divorced, claims to have spent a million dollars on "broads." Such extravagances and a fading career as a film tough guy led to his financial

Cokes Shaves Beard for Harris Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Curtis Cokes has to shave off his beard but he says it won't make him any weaker for his non-title 10-rounder with Gypsy Joe Harris at the Garden Friday night.

The welterweight champion will be permitted to keep his mustache but the New York Athletic Commission decreed the beard must go.

"I'll start growing it right after the fight," said the dapper, 29-year-old champion from Dallas. "I like a beard. It makes me different and people know me. I like that. It's part of being the champion and I like being the champion."

Cokes, a father of four who has quit the ring twice, was a virtual unknown until he whipped Luis Rodriguez, the former welterweight king, Manuel Gonzalez, and then Francis Jean Josselin.

The victory over Josselin in his home town of Dallas, Tex., earned the lean 5-foot-9 boxer-puncher the 147 1/2-pound division throne vacated by Emile Griffith when he won the mid-dleweight title.

This will be Cokes' first fight in the Garden. It will be the Garden debut, also, of Harris.

trouble in 1957 and was fined $2,500 after pleading guilty to tax evasion.

"My luck started turning sour in 1957," he said. Since then he has suffered a series of personal and financial disasters in Cuba, Las Vegas, London and elsewhere.

Marriage Office a Bit Small

VELBERT, Germany (AP) — Norman Mears' hospitality was large but the registry office where he was married was a little too small.

So the 29 friends and relatives the St. Paul, Minn., business executive had flown over for the ceremony had to wait outside.

It cost the 62-year-old Mears about $20,000 to bring the guests over for his wedding to 37-year-old Hella Lux, a teacher of English.

Mears' transatlantic guests were supposed to have been taken straight to the bride's home for the reception but a bus driver dropped them at the tiny registry office by mistake.

Lightning kills or injures about 2,000 people in the United States each year, mostly in rural areas.

Martins Arrive Street Program Up to People

About 6 Wednesday night I was feeding the wild poultry on the "back 40" when I heard a burbling note in the sky—and half a dozen purple martins swept down on my high-rise boxes.

They were late—the latest in the five years I have been keeping records on the migrants. March 23 this year. Here is the record of previous arrivals:

1966—March 15
1965—March 6
1964—March 14
1963—March 21

But late or not they do finally arrive—posing one of Man's greatest riddles: How a bird no larger than a swallow (which the martin is) can migrate the thousands of miles between South America and Arkansas and unerringly find the same box he left a year ago. The martin cycle four months here, four months in South America. . . and four months "on the road."

Wednesday the City of Hope put out a tentative proposal for the rebuilding of our city streets, admittedly in bad shape from the beginning, and made worse by the excavation required when our new sewerage lines were installed several years ago.

The projected program of half a million dollars will require extra money. While the details aren't firmly fixed as yet it is pretty obvious that property owners will be asked to permit the restoration of the city 5-mill ad valorem tax—on which the citizens would vote.

This is O.K. with The Star and we will support it in a referendum. The city has eliminated from its plans any grant of federal money, and that removes any objection we might have.

Hope has been a fine example of co-operation between the public funds of municipal government and the private funds of property owners in the past, and there is no reason why this shouldn't be successful in rebuilding our bad streets today.

We are uncertain about its present status at law but it does seem reasonable to restore, if possible, the city license tax on automobiles—even if this also requires voting in a referendum. I seem to remember that when the cities' turnback from state gasoline tax funds was increased there was some kind of stipulation that city auto licenses would be discontinued. I don't go along with that.

If there's no law forbidding imposition of the city auto license charge then I think this tax charge should be put up to the people for a vote. It is automobiles, not pedestrians, who use the streets—and they should stand a share of the cost.

Wage Law Poses Tenant Farm Problem

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Wednesday a major problem facing the state is feeding and rehabilitating 1,000 farm families in eastern Arkansas who have been put out of work by new federal wage and hour regulations.

He said farmers have begun buying more machinery to avoid paying the new minimum wages, Rockefeller said the families were all Negroes. The governor said he had discussed the problem with Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman and had asked him for approval of a food stamp program in affected counties which do not have them. He said he had also asked for an increase in the food commodity program. Rockefeller said he still hopes the Senate will pass a Revenue Stabilization Act which he says has his approval with the exception of an allocation for the cities.

The governor also said he thought he would adjourn the legislature if he had the authority to do so and if it does not adjourn sine die. He told newsmen he was inclined to agree with the House that the result of an investigation of alleged attempted bribery of legislators "might be subject to suspicion."

David Joins Strike, No Good Night

By GEORGE ESPER
NEW YORK (AP) — "Good night, David. Good night, Chet," is a casualty of the television-radio strike as Huntley talked but Brinkley didn't.

The familiar coast to coast television signoff was conspicuously absent Wednesday night as Chet Huntley, defying a strike by the 18,000-member American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, went it alone on his evening news report for the National Broadcasting Co.

David Brinkley, the other half of the NBC news team, stayed away from his microphone in Washington. He refused to cross a picket line.

There appeared to be little likelihood of a settlement before Saturday when union officials and executives of NBC, CBS, ABC and the Mutual Broadcasting System meet in Washington at the offices of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The strike over wages and commercial fees, the first national one in AFTRA's 30-year history, was called at 5 a.m. Wednesday in behalf of about 100 local on-the-air newscasters whose minimums currently exceed $11,000 a year. Most network stars, some of whose salaries range upward from the $100,000 level, supported the strike, as members of AFTRA even though they had reached an agreement last January.

Frank McGee, another NBC television and radio newsmen well-known for his description of U.S. space shots, also defied the picket lines and broadcast his regular 4 p.m. radio newscast Wednesday.

But missing from the TV screens were other well-known newscasters such as Walter Cronkite of the Columbia Broadcasting System and Peter Jennings of the American Broadcasting Co.

Cronkite was replaced by Arnold Zenker, CBS program administration manager. Jennings was replaced by Daryl Griffin, an ABC producer in the special events unit.

NBC newscaster Bill Ryan used his picket sign for support to sign autographs outside the RCA building in Rockefeller Plaza where he marched with strikers.

Huntley apparently changed his mind about going on the air. Earlier in the day, NBC had said that the Huntley-Brinkley show would not go on. The news report is divided between Huntley in New York and Brinkley in Washington. They have been a team for more than 10 years.

No Right to Pick School Challenged

By BEN THOMAS
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The U.S. Supreme Court will be asked to review an 8-4 ruling by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals which said a pupil "has no inalienable right to choose his school."

It affirmed a far-reaching decision calling for total integration of public schools in six Southern states.

It also put a new interpretation on the freedom-of-choice theme of integration which has been in effect since the 1954 Supreme Court ruling banning "separate but equal" schools.

"The freedom of the Negro child to attend any public school is again lost to him after a short life of less than 13 years," said a dissent by U.S. Circuit Judge J. P. Coleman of Ackerman, Miss.

"We are not freeing these children of racial chains. We are compounding and prolonging the difficulty," he said.

The opinion was issued late Wednesday and endorsed a decision made three months ago by a three-judge panel of the court.

LARGEST SETTLEMENT ever awarded by an American court to a living individual went to James Doolan, 28, recently, for personal injuries received as a laborer on a construction job in Chicago. Doolan, a quadriplegic was awarded $696,000 after his neck was fractured and his spinal cord damaged in a construction accident. Settlement was paid by B. R. Abbot Construction Co., general contractor for the job, and Case Foundation Co. Doolan's employer. Congratulating him is Circuit Court Judge P. A. Sorrentino, left, as Doolan's wife looks on.

Legislature Heading for Statement Over Stabilization Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas legislature appeared headed for a stalemate over the revenue stabilization bill Wednesday.

The House passed its version in the form desired by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller 82-11 after beating down an attempt to open the bill for amendments similar to those attached to the Senate's stabilization measure Tuesday.

When the House bill reached the Senate, Sen. Clarence Bell of Parkin successfully challenged a second reading of the bill, possibly delaying its consideration by a day.

Meanwhile, a bill appropriating operating expenses for the State Police bogged down in the Senate when the legislators refused to concur in a House amendment adding $270,000 to the budget. Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett, however, gave notice of reconsideration within three days.

Rep. Bill Wells of Hermitage told the House if the representatives passed the House stabilization bill in its present form they would be at loggerheads with the Senate.

He said he had an amendment that would save the state up to $10 million by limiting salary increases to 15 per cent. Rep. G. W. Turner Jr. of Pine Bluff asked the House to open the bill for amendment because he had one giving the school teachers a guarantee that they would receive their promised $500-a-year raises.

The amendments are similar to those attached to the Senate version. The Senate bill also contains an amendment increasing the priority of turn-back funds to the cities.

Rockefeller made an appeal to the House to pass the bill as is. He said in a written statement that he was confident the teachers would receive their $500 raises.

"If we open it (the bill) up for amendment, we'll wind up on the 4th of July still arguing here," said Rep. Jack S. Oakes of Augusta in arguing against a motion to put the bill on second reading for amendment. The motion was defeated 23-60.

Sen. Guy Jones of Conway, speaking against Senate concurrence in the State Police amendment, said a "great deal of dissatisfaction" with the State Police existed.

He said there was feeling that the department had "too many chiefs and not enough Indians" and that troopers were becoming too involved in law enforcement to adequately fulfill their duties.

Dodd Won't Be Ousted From Senate

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate ethics committee has decided against recommending expulsion of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd. But neither will it exonerate him of misconduct charges.

It also was learned Wednesday that the panel will not propose that Dodd be stripped of his Senate seniority or penalized financially in any way.

The 59-year-old Connecticut Democrat's financial affairs and his relations with an agent of West German business interests have been under investigation by the bipartisan committee for more than a year.

The committee's recommendations to the Senate are not expected for three or four weeks, but the staff is working on a preliminary draft.

At a secret meeting last week, to set guidelines for the staff, the committee ruled out both total exoneration and expulsion, it was learned.

Senator Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., one of the six committee members, said when asked about this he thought it was fair to conclude that whatever action is taken "will fall between these two extremes."

In-between courses of action could include censure or condemnation of Dodd's conduct or some other form of reprimand or rebuke.

It appeared the committee's report is likely to make different findings on various aspects of Dodd's activities.

One source said "the degree of severity" of the committee's action has yet to be determined, with the precise wording to be worked out after the members return from Congress' Easter recess.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., committee chairman, issued this statement: "Since the hearings closed the committee has had one meeting which was for discussion only. All members were present. No official action was taken. The committee adjourned to meet soon after the recess for further consideration of the case."

The committee reportedly will not attempt to make recommendations at this time for a comprehensive code of ethics. But it may set forth a number of standards of conduct in relation to its findings in the Dodd case.

Newsman Are Again Jailed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two reporters who were jailed for contempt of court were released today by Circuit Judge William Kirby after they answered the questions they had refused to answer earlier before the Pulaski County Grand Jury.

Kirby said the newsmen, Jack Baker of The Arkansas Gazette and Michael Smith of the Pine Bluff Commercial, purged themselves of contempt by answering the questions.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A hearing for two newsmen, jailed again Wednesday when the state Supreme Court dismissed their appeal, is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. today.

The pair, Mike Smith of the Pine Bluff Commercial and Jack Baker of the Arkansas Gazette, were arrested on the order of Circuit Judge William J. Kirby.

Smith and Baker were jailed last week on contempt of court charges after being questioned by the Pulaski County Grand Jury. The Grand Jury is investigating reports of alleged bribe offers made to legislators.

Rep. Gayle Windsor of Little Rock said he was offered $1,000 to vote for the bill which would have legalized gambling in four private clubs at Hot Springs. Smith and Baker said they had received similar statements from other legislators. They refused to reveal the names of the legislators.

At Least 18 Killed as Plane Crashes Into a New Orleans Motel

Casualties Increase in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — More American and Communist troops were killed last week than ever before in the Vietnam war, U.S. military headquarters announced today.

The United States lost 274 dead and the Communists 2,774, the American command said.

While the Communist death toll set a record for the second straight week, the U.S. total exceeded a record of 240 that had stood since the battle of the Ia Drang Valley in November 1965.

Although the ground war has been relatively quiet for the past few days, the casualty summary for last week emphasized the growing intensity of the struggle in Vietnam. Many of the casualties were suffered in one of the war's deadliest one-day battles, on March 21, in which a crack Viet Cong regiment lost more than 600 dead in the jungles of Tay Ninh Province.

The deadly pace of the war continued Wednesday with 50 Viet Cong reported killed by South Korean soldiers sweeping the central coast and scattered actions dotting the countryside.

U.S. pilots smashed at targets in North Vietnam with 108 missions, including strikes on a storage complex 27 miles north-east of Hanoi. In the south, rockets from a U.S. Army helicopter on a firing mission fell short, killed three civilians, wounded 20 others and destroyed 31 huts in a government-controlled village 35 miles southeast of Quang Ngai.

The weekly casualty summary reported 1,320 Americans were wounded last week, the third highest total of the war, and 12 were missing.

The casualty figures also reflect the increasing use by the Communists of mortars, rockets and recoilless rifles—relatively long-range weapons which they now generally favor in an attempt to escape the massive and growing U.S. firepower. U.S. officers say the Communists have apparently decided to wage a war of attrition for the time being.

Prayer Ruling Is Condemned

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. Dan T. Sprick of Little Rock took the floor of the Arkansas Senate Wednesday and said he deplored what he termed a trend away from prayer in the United States.

Sprick said the churches were contributing to the trend.

Mazander ordered the seven slots destroyed and said he wanted all the equipment returned.

By ED MCCUSKER
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A Delta Air Lines DC8 jet preparing to land at New Orleans airport on a training flight careened into a luxury motel and exploded early today. At least 18 persons were killed, including the five pilots and a federal inspector on board.

W. T. Jeter of Norman, Ark. was listed as one the six pilots killed in the crash. He formerly lived in Hope where his father was Engineer for the Arkansas Highway Department for several years.

The big jet, spilling fuel as it skidded down a railroad track, blistered a wide area before plunging into the Hilton Inn, directly across from the airport. The motel erupted into fierce flames. As many as 40 guest units were destroyed or damaged.

Eight charred bodies were found huddled in a bathroom.

A group of 69 students from Illinois and Wisconsin were housed at the motel, many in the rear section where the plane struck.

Eight girls from the group were still missing six hours after the crash.

Most guests fled the fiery scene in panic, many in their nightclothes. Some charred rooms were inaccessible for hours because of the heat.

"We saw a real bright light," said Doug Baer, 16, of Park Forest, Ill. "I opened the door and saw all those flames. We just ran. There was a series of explosions and breaking glass. The girls were hysterical, screaming and some throwing up."

The plane — the oldest DC8 in use by the airline — had been airborne only nine minutes before the crash occurred. It had arrived shortly before with passengers from Chicago. The night was balmy with a nearly full moon.

"It sounded like a giant whoof," said one witness. "The plane was covered in flames like a ball of fire."

The jet smashed two houses before striking the motel. Wreckage of the plane was scattered in small pieces over a wide area. The largest single part visible was an engine cowl resting on the railroad track.

The charred, decapitated body of a small boy was found in the remains of one home. A woman's body was nearby.

"I saw several bodies on fire in a field," said Jim Millet, an off duty policeman who reached the scene minutes after the fiery crash at approximately 2 a.m. EST. "I heard screams coming from the Hilton Inn, and started leading people out."

Some of the guests were in their underwear with soaked towels around their heads, he said.

Gambling Cases Are Rescheduled

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Municipal Judge Earl Mazander said Wednesday the cases of seven persons facing gambling charges will be rescheduled as soon as possible after the contempt of court hearing of Maj. William Struening, head of the State Police Criminal Investigation Division.

Struening's hearing is scheduled for Monday. The seven cases were to be heard today.

Struening was charged with contempt of court Monday when he failed to comply with a court order to return 49 slot machines seized in raids at Hot Springs. The slots and other gaming devices were brought to Little Rock. Seven slot machines were returned to Hot Springs.

Mazander ordered the seven slots destroyed and said he wanted all the equipment returned.
